TO THE HUDSON RIVER. Flow swiftly, dark Hudson, along thy deep bed, And speedily wear out the troublesome thread That tacks the last end of creation to earth, And shames, with its foul touch, fair honor and worth.

Flow swiftly, fair Hudson, and cut the coarse strand That holds the last end of creation to land; Dig deep, in thy just wrath, a watery trough, And let the last end of creation break off. But wait, kindly Hudson, till Benny has come, And Thad's on a visit to Charlie "at home,"

And Wendell & Co. are on beard, without fail, Then let the last end of creation set sail. Be sure, blessed Hudson, the wind's in the West, And the national vultures are safe in their nest, And nothing can rescue the Radical crew, Then let thy soft sand-bottom swiftly drop

A Jonah's aboard of the old Ship of State, Threw him over, dear Hudson, before it's too There's no fish in ocean would swallow such

And we'll be at rest when he crosses the flood. When the big dogs go over, we'll have a calm the puppies will skulk and be still as a retheart and fierce Blanch, and yelping ng Tray, dumb dogs, when their father's ot Hudson, and wash the last

That holds the last end of creation to land, Deep down in the ocean, indignantly swift, And set the last end of creation adrift.

Be sure, gentle Hudson, the west wind is strong As a hurricane blast, when you cut the last And the waves of old ocean are rolling so high

That the Radical ship must needs flounder or fly! QUIEN SABE.
